Embrace Relief coordinates and provides the necessities and sustenance to the disadvantaged and disaster-stricken individuals and groups that would otherwise have little to no other means to obtain things such as, food, clothing, housing, education, skill training, counseling and alike. While Embrace Relief dedicates much of its resources to aid efforts, we also make considerable investments in fighting against poverty by relieving hunger and health problems of the people in need. We support stronger cognitive development, increased stimulation, improved health of all individuals especially ones who need but can not afford.

Embrace Relief, its staff and its volunteers believe that every member of society can give back to their communities in any shape or form, within a pleasant and respectful environment that accepts no judgments or discrimination.

Enes Kanter Education Fund

The purpose of the Enes Kanter Fund is to provide scholarships to a number of hardworking high school seniors in the U.S. for their undergraduate studies. To help Embrace Relief’s education fund, NBA star Enes Kanter has donated autographed memorabilia to all donors. With his help Embrace Relief was able to raise $50,000. Embrace Relief has contributed those funds as scholarships to select students at the University of Oklahoma, and DePaul University.

School Supplies Distribution

Backpacks full of school supplies have been distributed to 450 children of families in need in Paterson, NJ, and 620 orphans in Haiti. In addition to this Embrace Relief partnered with Peace Islands and the UN, and donated 40 computers to Afghanistan, and 30 computers to Haiti.

Book Drive

Lumina University of Romania, a fairly new higher education institution in that country, has been implementing more English-based courses into its curriculum. Therefore Embrace Relief set out to collect 20,000 English books to fill the school’s library. Embrace Relief exceeded its goal, and was able to contribute 22,000 books to Lumina University.

Vocational Training

This is a marketing program where women are trained to sell items on eBay, and pursue it as a lifelong career. Embrace Relief also provides a start up package and one year of support on their eBay account, so that trainees can get a head start in their new business of online marketing.

In addition to that, Embrace Relief collaborated with the Omeriye Foundation of Kenya, and built a soup kitchen that could serve hot meals up to 3,500 people a day in that country. The facility even delivers a portion of the food to people’s homes.

Embrace Relief’s “Clean Water” campaign is providing drinkable, clean water to thousands of people throughout Africa and Haiti. These wells are currently providing the residents of those regions healthier and cleaner living conditions.

Orphan Sponsorship Program

Embrace Relief is helping orphans in Haiti and Africa. We have reached out to people and asked them to sponsor the living expenses of an orphan for a year. Currently there are 350 orphans being sponsored. The sponsorship provides orphans with essential needs like clean water, food, and shelter.

In addition to the Orphan Sponsorship Program, Embrace Relief has raised enough funds to send a container full of bunk beds with mattresses, sheets, pull out couches, and rugs to Haiti in 2015.

Cataract Surgeries in Africa

Hot weather, malnutrition, and climate conditions in Africa cause many people to lose their sight to cataracts at a young age. It is estimated that two million Africans experience vision problems stemming from cataracts. An insufficient number of doctors as well as a lack of financial resources translate to thousands with cataracts living in darkness despite the availability of a cure for a small cost.

Globally, uncorrected refractive errors are the main cause of moderate and severe visual impairment; cataracts remain the leading cause of blindness in middle- and low-income countries.

With a fully equipped mobile clinic, Embrace Relief regularly administers health screenings throughout Africa, and can conduct up to 30 cataract surgeries a day.

Over the past two years, Embrace Relief was able to send blankets and winter clothes amounting to four and six containers respectively, together with its partner organizations, to aid displaced Syrians in Turkey, the host country to the greatest number of Syrian refugees in the world (approximately 3 million people). As the unfortunate situation in the region doesn’t seem to improve soon, Embrace Relief decided to repeat its initiative again this year, with a goal of ten containers of goods in mind.

But the response of our volunteers has far exceeded our expectations this year, and sixteen containers of blankets, winter coats, and various winter clothing have been contributed in “Help Syrian Refugees 2015” campaign. Approximately 40,000 blankets, 33,000 coats and 7,500 pieces of various clothing have been collected in over 100 drop-off locations across the US by our volunteers from all walks of life.

Syrian Refugees Aid Distribution

A delegation of the Embrace Relief team and local government officials from DC area spent a week in Turkey afterwards in February to observe and to participate in the distribution process directly. They have visited Syrian families who fled their country after the war and took refuge in Istanbul’s working class neighborhoods, allowing them to see the effects of the disaster in Syria on families and children, and distributed a portion of the collected goods themselves.

According to Human Rights Watch, more than 400,000 Syrian refugee children living in Turkey are not attending school.
